Celebrate the holidays this year with the Choir of the Sound in a show that will have you remembering favorite holiday traditions and discovering new ones! Together with a full brass ensemble, we will travel from days of old to the present, showcasing music ranging from medieval carols to Irving Berlin's White Christmas to John Rutter's Gloria. With our signature blend of singing, dancing, and staging, this show is sure to delight music lovers of all ages. Join us for an experience that will start your holiday season with a smile!
